Oda: Before we Begin the SBS corner...
We have the S (some) S (small) M (mistakes) Corner!! This is for everyone who purchased the first printing of Volume 16.
First, about Chopper's name:
"Tony Tony Chopper" is what it says, But this was a typo. It should really Be "TonyTony Chopper," so please remember that. What? It doesn't matter!? Oh well, I just thought I'd Bring it up. All right, on to the Question Corner!

Reader: Hello, Oda Sensei. Recently, a lot of people have been wanting to shout out the start of the SBS Corner. Actually, I'm one of them. But I'm sure you want to say it, too. So, let's each do half. Ready?
"SBS will now be--"

Oda: "--gin." Um... Huh!?

Reader: Where is Oh Come My Way? Is it near my house?

Oda: Hmm... Oh Come My Way? Well, this is a difficult question, But, it's a place where people who have "come out" Go to walk. And I think it exists anywhere. ♡ Yeow!!

Reader: Oda Sensei, a question about the helmets worn by the giants Broggy and Dorry. One resembles a Celtic horned helmet and the other seems to be from the Swedish Vendel Period (not sure when that was). Am I correct?

Oda: Well, the inspiration for the "Warriors of ElBaph," the tribe of Giants, was my favorite pirates of the north, the Vikings, so you are absolutely right. Banzai to those intrepid spirits!
